

I am delighted to introduce some new and exciting specialty classes for 2020 at M's Canvashouse. I am thrilled to bring my dear friends, Tony Minieri and Suzanne Howren, to Lexington for the Embellishment squad for the first time. Tony will also doing an Embellishment class as well! More exciting news is that Mary Alice Sinton is coming to start Phase 1 Japanese Embroidery. You will also see a listing of my M'bellishment classes on page 4. Hurry... these classes will fill fast!

Things you should know about 2, 3 & 4 day classes!

- When signing up for class you must make a deposit. Details about the deposit is listed under each class. A deposit is a commitment that you're coming and a commitment I am holding a place for you. Please let us know as soon as possible if you cannot come.
- Canvas must be purchased from M's Canvashouse or a fee may apply.
- If you're coming from out of town, we will send you a "class information sheet" suggesting where to stay, where to eat and other information about Lexington.
- I will have your canvas mounted with some threads pulled ready for your arrival.

Remainder of the deposit will be due July 20th

Details: It's very exciting to finally have my 'Squad' here to teach in the new store! Three amazing teachers for four- days you will never forget. Here's how it works: You submit your chosen canvas for the class by June 1st (no later). Next, the squad gets together (at an undisclosed location) and we choose six areas and stitches for your design. When you get to class you will already have work to do! Each day you will have a new teacher help you embellish the remainder of your canvas. In these four-days you will have a complete stitch guide. NOTE: Painted canvas no larger than 16 x 16 square inches. Bring a copy of Stitches To Go. Each student will receive a manual of the stitches we chose for the class. Class includes lunch and surprises each day!

Class is limited to 30 people.

M's Stitching Bee

"Baby It's Cold Outside" Series

Stitch-a-long with us in this "Baby it's Cold Outside" series as we build 6 snowmen for your Christmas tree for next year. Each month starting in March you will get one of the snowmen, threads, and a stitch guide. You will also have email support and a monthly email about your upcoming canvas! Learn something new each month. We will pick unique threads you may not have worked with before or avoided because you weren't sure how to use it! Our exclusive Silk Tweed will be included in some kits too! Kit includes everything you need to complete the 6 canvases and one set of stretcher bars. You are signing up for the entire set of snowmen as we mingle the threads through the entire series.

Come on! Let's stitch along!

Date: March, April, May, June, July, & August

Teacher: Meredith Willett

Kit Cost: $150.00 per month

Details: To enroll in this class a prepayment of $300.00 is applied to your last two snowman kits.

M'bellishment Class Reminders

- What can you expect in a one-day M'bellishment Class?
- You will receive about 6-8 stitches or techniques on a one-day class project. Larger projects, stockings for example will require additional class time to complete the project.
- Your canvas must be purchased from M's.
- We can always special order a canvas for you.
- As soon as you sign up for class, please bring your canvas to the shop. We will need a color copy of your canvas and the canvas mounted on stretcher bars. We would like to keep the canvas at the shop for you. With the shop holding the canvas for you, this will help me get a head start the day of your class.

Misc Reminders

*Please park to the right side of the building

*Phones on silent please

*No drinks allowed in the classroom or on the table

*Cancellation policy - Please call the shop ASAP if you need to cancel

*M's Canvashouse reserves the right to cancel. If the class is canceled, class fees will be fully refunded in the form of a check.
